Tailor the Video to YOUR website

As a huge fan of www.wonderfulwebwomen.com and a contributor to the new 2008 Goldbook, I wanted to show my support to Janet Beckers and provide the video above. I also wanted to offer YOU a way to maximise the marketing opportunity and use the video to promote your own website.

Janet has provided comprehensive guidelines on how you can promote the new book and use it to build your list, and putting your video on your website will work really well to do that.

What if you could create a real win-win and find the target audience you're always hungry for to visit your website? What's included in the Wonderful Web Women EXCLUSIVE OFFER:

Your own branded version of the LAA video, with your URL across the bottom throughout the video so people know how to reach you

Your own title slide at the end with a call to action, complete with any contact details you may wish to include, driving viewers to massive action

Creation of an optimum set of keywords, title and description appropriate for YOUR website to track down your ideal clients

Submission of your video to over 30 top video hosting sites, in three different formats to maximise exposure to people searching for what you offer

We'll resubmit your video 30 days after initial postings, for an even bigger effect on your rankings and site positioning

We provide you with the html code so you can place your video on your own website. Hey, if you would like a hand with that, we are more than happy to help

As with our Videos Go Viral package, we'll also include

Here's the Video Postcard I created for Janet to use to send to her list:

Thank you Jo for the wonderful video you created to promote the Wonderful Web Women collaborative book "The Law Of Attraction in Action". The process was so quick and painless. You understood our marketing message immediately and created a professional video in just a matter of days that captured the real essence of what the book was about. Adding the video to my web site was as simple as cut and paste. I loved working with you.

Cheers

Janet Beckers

Founder and Host of Wonderful Web Women

For my special Bonus for Wonderful Web Women, I will create your very own version of the Video Postcard. There's a choice of backgrounds you can have – if you are involved with Real Estate, I'd suggest a postcard with a house, or perhaps an inspirational view like Janet's. With over 80 to chose from, there's bound to be one you really like.

Each Postcard can be created to include your own logo and branding, and whatever text you would like on the right hand side. If you would like to include your affiliate link to Wonderful Web women, I'll code that in for you too.

This video postcard will be available to you to send out up to 250 times to your list, over any length of time. I'll let you know when you are getting close to your limit, in case you would like to extend your use of the video, with monthly fees from as low as US$25.

When I offer set up of Video postcards as part of a package, I value that at $147 – you have it included all ready to go for free in your offer!

You are probably expecting the offer to be the same price, if not more, than the great deals we have on Videos Go viral packages, because of the extra special bonus.

However, as I mentioned earlier, I really wanted to support Janet with her vision to touch as many people as possible, and help them get into action in 2008 and make it a fantastic year.

My personal vision is to Inspire People to Embrace Their Passion, which you will find at the core of every video and copy I create. This video allows me to spread that Inspiration through you even further, so I see it as a great way to give back to as many individuals as I can.

That's why I've cut the price down to the bare bones, and can virally market your own version of Law of Attraction in Action video for $277, that's $120 off my normal price of Videos Go Viral for a two minute video, and that package does not include a personalised Video postcard.
